

Superior Comfort and Style with Space Saving Mattress and Base Combination

Who said you can't have it all? All the comfort, style, and quality you've come to expect from Istikbal is available on the Four Seasons High Rise. The smart set includes a regular mattress and base that stores a spare mattress underneath. The easy to operate mechanism lets you pull out and push up the spare next to the single size mattress, converting it into a king size mattress. The top and spare Four Seasons High Rise mattresses both provide excellent orthopedic support thanks to Bonel Spring System, one of the most developed spring systems available. Layers of comfort and support foam, as well as foam encasement system assure deep relaxing sleep to help you wake up rejuvenated. The stylish quilting and gray handles match the gray upholstered sides and base perfectly. Enjoy premium comfort sleep on an ultra-stylish modern base and mattress set without foregoing even the slightest of your quality expectations.
